Percolator Consulting is looking for a Salesforce declarative developer on a contract basis to assist in building out functionality for our clients.

The ideal candidate has the following skills & experience:

- Salesforce.com Certified Admin
- 2+ years experience as a Salesforce declarative developer
- Nonprofit experience and desire to work in the nonprofit sector
- Expert at Salesforce schema design, and declarative automation, including Flow and Process Builder
- Strong familiarity with Salesforce's NPSP application
- Thrives as part of a development team, but able to work independently to turn requirements into a working system
- Experience with agile methodologies is a plus

This is a remote position. The candidate can work from anywhere in the U.S.

ABOUT PERCOLATOR

Percolator Consulting helps mission-driven organizations use technology to mobilize and engage their supporters. We work at the intersection of technology and strategy, and our team is made up of technologists who have deep experience as campaigners, organizers, and fundraisers. We are experts on the Salesforce platform, including complex customization, application development, and integrations, as well as other technologies that power social change efforts. Our headquarters is in Seattle, but we work with developers, designers, and clients across North America. Our client list includes organizations such as The Mountaineers, GO Public Schools, Greenpeace, First Nations Technology Council, the Appalachian Trail Conservancy, and the David Suzuki Foundation. We love our clients and their missions.

We believe that the right strategies and tools, in the right hands, can change the world, and we deliver those strategies and tools to our clients every day.
